

Significance of Colours

!!Inspired by Vastu!!

According to Vastu, Colours have significant influence on our minds and bodies.

Colours that are in harmony with planets and direction can help enhance a positive energy flow through the home..

Asian paints presents Colour Shastra, featuring colour combinations that are inspired by Vastu.

Violet

The symbol of a person meditating indicates the violet colour qualities of calming and cooling effect thereby aiding in meditation.

Ideal usage- Pooja, study ,
meditation and kids bedroom.

Indigo

The symbol of lotus depicts the ability of the indigo colour creating spirituality as lotus is used for many spiritual purposes.

Ideal usage- Pooja, study ,
meditation and kids bedroom.

Blue

The symbol of a bird therein symbolises the purity, peace, loyalty and the calming capacity of the blue colour.

Ideal usage- Bathrooms, Meditation, Study rooms and kids bedroom.

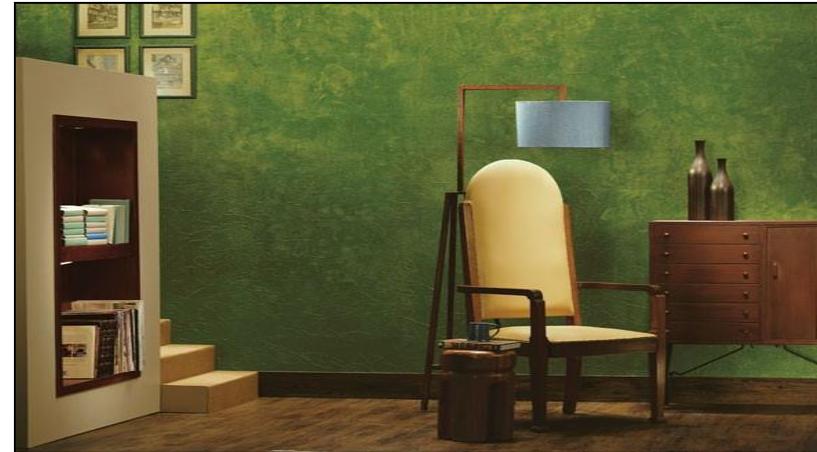

Green

The symbol of a hand showing that this colour has all the qualities of harmony , healing, renewing, and rejuvenation.

Ideal usage- Kitchen, study room and Master bedroom.

Yellow

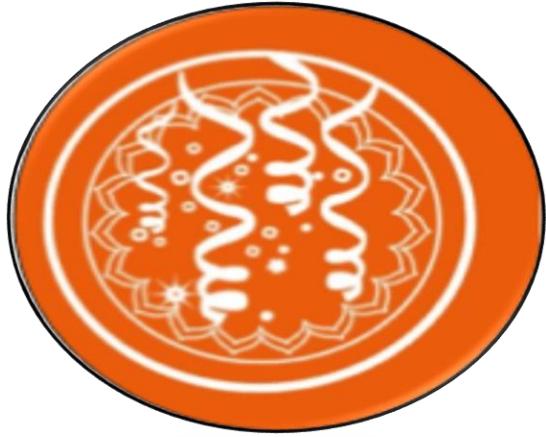

The symbol of a sunflower indicating the appropriate yellow colour tendency of blooming and enhancing the thought process.

Ideal usage- Kitchen, Children's,
Living room.

The symbol of flying ribbons, which symbolises the orange colour tendency of new beginnings and achievements.

Orange

Ideal usage- Exercise- Gym rooms, Kitchen, Children's, Living room.

The symbol of a burning light. As red is the colour of passion, love, brightness and warmth, this symbol indicates the brightness and glow of this colour.

Red

Ideal usage-Living room,
Couple rooms.

White/Grey

The symbol of a shell purely symbolises the purity, piety, peace and the serenity of this colour.

Ideal usage- Ceiling, and can be used throughout the house.

Brown

The symbol of a tree symbolises earth , wood , stone , wholesomeness, reliability , elegance , security , healing , home , grounding foundation , stability , warmth , and honesty of this colour.

Ideal usage- Supporting walls can be used throughout the house.

